GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS BROWN TO CEMETERY COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed David W. Brown of Raleigh to the North Carolina Cemetery Commission.

Brown is the regional director of operations at Stewart Enterprises. He is the past president of the North Carolina Cemetery Association. Brown received the Manager of the Year award in 1999 from Stewart Enterprises. He attended East Carolina University.

The commission has the power and duty to adopt rules and regulations related to the cemetery industry. Members may examine the records of licensees, investigate complaints and address the failure to pay fees and the failure to render required reports and violations. The board has nine members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints seven members. The Senate President Pro Tempore and the Speaker of the House each appoint one member.
